We Promise Comfort

Shopizona's mission is to create happier everyday lives.

- The retailer will conduct good behavior with the delivery person and will show him proper priority.
- According to our merchant's terms and condition, you always have to deliver good food and good products to the buyers.
- As a customer return and cancellation policy, you must accept it. You must accept the return and cancellation policy that you have through an app with us.
- We sincerely wish you all the best in partnership but our most important term is that if ever a wrong food or bad product is delivered to the customer then you have to pay a penalty of at least 500 rupees.
- We have the second most important terms and condition that you must include our branding labeling in all the orders you receive and the packaging you create.
- Some of the packaging will be given to you for free but later on when the free stock runs out you must buy our packaging and box but you can order it from our website.
- The retailer may update/change his/ her product's value as per time required in order to upgrade the business.
- If we find any bad behavior or bad impressions in your store and in the product, you will be canceled from our storeizona platform without any notice to you. Also if you have money pending in any of the orders you will not get it as it will deduct all the balance in your wallet as a penalty. We always give customers a lot more serious advice so our rules are very simple and we can make it more transparent. This is our goal.
- These Terms of Use are subject to modifications. We reserve the right to modify or change these Terms of Use and other SHOPIZONA policies at any time by posting modified documents on the Platform and notifying you of the same for your perusal. You shall be liable to update yourself of such changes, if any, by accessing the same.

I have a good faith belief that all the above mentioned terms and conditions are true and I agree with the shopizona LLP policies with sound mindedness.
